PRESS RELEASE

16 March 2014

Hong Kong, 16 March 2014 – CompliancePlus Consulting Limited, a compliance consulting company based in Hong Kong, has become a donor to the 42nd Hong Kong Arts Festival, a major annual festival and Asia's premier cultural event drawing together international artists and ensembles and Hong Kong's own creative talents.

"We are delighted to be able to nurture the Hong Kong community's future leaders with the 42nd Hong Kong Arts Festival. We hope this will support students of Hong Kong to develop a cultural identity and an awareness of the international stage. This initiative reflects CompliancePlus' own philosophy in supporting the financial community of Hong Kong to grow and develop its future leaders. CompliancePlus continues to look forward to further development opportunities in making Hong Kong a premier Asian city." said Ms. Josephine Chung, Director of CompliancePlus.

CompliancePlus has been proactive in the development of Hong Kong's premier status in the Asia-Pacific region since the Company's inception with the fostering of academics with awards and the sponsorship of financial forums. CompliancePlus offers practical compliance solutions and recommendations to financial firms and institutions in Asia to support their staff meet their compliance obligations and conform to local regulatory requirements.
