PRESS RELEASE

7 December 2016

Hong Kong, 7 December 2016 – Since 2010, the Faculty of Law of the University of Hong Kong (“HKU”) has been running a Free Legal Advice Scheme on campus to offer preliminary legal advice to members of the public who encounter legal problems. Under the instruction of experienced lawyers, penultimate and final year law students of HKU have an opportunity to learn from legal cases in real life through assisting people in need. To support the Faculty of Law and to give back to society, CompliancePlus has offered book prizes to outstanding students of the Clinical Legal Education Course.

Ms. Josephine Chung, Director of CompliancePlus, was invited to the HKU Faculty of Law 196th Congregation on 1 December 2016 and presented the CompliancePlus Consulting Limited Book Prize for Pro-Bono Work in Clinical Legal Education to 6 awardees for this year.

“I am glad to see students spending their time and effort as well as using the knowledge they learned at the university to assist those who are in need of legal services. Pro bono legal service plays a vital work in advancing public access to justice,” said Ms. Chung.

CompliancePlus offers award-winning proactive and practical compliance solutions and recommendations to private fund managers, hedge fund managers, fund management companies and financial firms and institutions in Asia and the world to help their staff meet their compliance obligations and conform to local regulatory compliance requirements.
