PRESS RELEASE

31 March 2017

Hong Kong, 31 March 2017 - CompliancePlus Consulting Limited gratefully accepted the Best Compliance Services Provider Award for 2017 as announced by AsianInvestor today. This is the second time in the past four years that CompliancePlus Consulting Limited is honoured by this prestigious industry recognition in the region.

“We are thankful and grateful for support and encouragement from our clients, services providers, prime brokers and industry contacts over the past years. This means a lot to us and the team that the award is a recognition of our efforts and hard work for offering dedicated compliance support and practical compliance solutions to our clients. Since 2009, I and my team have participated in numerous innovative and groundbreaking compliance projects that we were privileged to gain industry knowledge and exposure as well as working relationships with many talents in the finance industry. We look forward to taking on new challenges ahead and working closely with our clients and industry practitioners to navigate the regulatory landscape together”, said Ms. Josephine Chung, Director of Compliance Plus Consulting Limited.

Compliance Plus offers award-winning proactive and practical compliance solutions and recommendations to fund managers, asset management companies and various types of financial institutions to meet their compliance obligations and to conform to their local regulatory requirements in Asia and around the world.
