CompliancePlus celebrates 10-Year Anniversary

Hong Kong, 13 June 2019 – Compliance Consulting Limited, a leading compliance consulting service provider based in Hong Kong, is honoured to have the privilege of celebrating their 10th year in the business, assisting clients with their compliance obligations and providing them with proactive and practical compliance solutions.

A cocktail reception was held on 23 May 2019 to celebrate this occasion at Liberty Exchange Kitchen & Bar. Over 150 legal and finance professionals, including fund managers, strategists, analysts, traders and CFOs from various financial institutions participated in the event.

Since its establishment in 2009, CompliancePlus has continuously strived to provide the best compliance service to its clients. In the past decade, CompliancePlus has served more than 600 clients and has assisted in the application of over 300 SFC licenses, including Type 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, and 9 licenses. In both 2013 and 2017, the Company was awarded twice "The Best Compliance Services Provider" by AsianInvestor.

"We established this company and operate our business with conviction that we serve our clients with passion and integrity." said Ms. Josephine Chung, Director of CompliancePlus, during her speech at the reception. "Bearing this belief in mind, we can quickly tell our clients what is right and what is wrong. We have no fear in facing regulators, or in handling all types of difficult compliance problems."

In closing remark, Ms. Chung thanked her team as well as her clients for their valuable advice, support and encouragement over the past 10 years. "I've learned a lot from them. They've shared with me their knowledge, experience. We rode through storms together; we went through many ups and downs and we grew with our clients. We are indeed honoured to work with so many great talents in the industry.”
