CompliancePlus presented awards to winners of Clinical Legal Education Book Prize 2019 in HKU

Hong Kong, 30 Aug 2019 – The University of Hong Kong (“HKU”) Faculty of Law introduced the Free Legal Advice Scheme in 2010 to offer preliminary legal advice to the public and members of the HKU for free legal access to justice. HKU Law students who have joined the Clinical Legal Education Course can have a first-hand experience on the legal system through handling real-life cases, hence, develop their lawyering skills and promote pro-bono culture. Recognizing the efforts made by students in their endeavor, CompliancePlus has been at the forefront of showing support to the Faculty since 2013. Like every year, CompliancePlus offered book prizes to outstanding students of the Clinical Legal Education Course this year.

Mr. Tony Chan, Director of CompliancePlus, was honored to be the presenter of awards at the HKU Faculty of Law Opening Ceremony on 30 August 2019 and presented the CompliancePlus Consulting Limited Prize for Pro-Bono Work in Clinical Legal Education to 7 awardees in recognition of their outstanding academic performance.

“The Faculty is providing a great opportunity for students to train up their legal silks as well as a platform for them to give back to the community. It is with pleasure to honour those awardees’ achievement and encourage those who have done extraordinarily well throughout the academic year.”

CompliancePlus offers award-winning proactive and practical compliance solutions and recommendations to private fund managers, hedge fund managers, fund management companies, and financial firms and institutions in Asia and the world to help their staff meeting their compliance obligations and conforming to local regulatory compliance requirements.
